The Treasurer was ordered to cancel the 1916 Assessment against Frank Golsarry of 4000 sheep $16000.00 amounting to a tax of $264.00 as it appears to the Board from an investigation they had made that tax on these sheep were paid in Navajo and Coconino Counties for the year 1916.

It was ordered that the proper Notices of presenting petition be posted as required by Law.

Petition from residents of Richville asking for a road due west from Richville to the St. Johns-Springerville road was considered and it was ordered that the proper Notices be posted as required by Law.

C. R. Jarvis appeared before the Board and entered protest on the Zuni Road running through Section I Township 13 North Range 28 East. The matter was taken under advisement.

The Treasurer was ordered to place on time deposit for 6 months time $15,000.00 of the Court House Bond Money, Interest at 5% and was also ordered to place deposit for Three Months Interest at 3%.
